

Sponsored by the PSO Guild and Kidder Music, the Student Concerts are now in their 55th year! We are excited about the 2010 program and want to share with you some of the changes you'll see.

Tuesday, April 13, 2010 – New Venue – Three Performances

Five Points Center in Washington* will be the place to be for fourth and fifth-graders, home schoolers and students enrolled in gifted or magnet schools or programs to have an intimate and unparalleled experience with the musicians of Peoria Symphony.

Three performances will be offered: • 9:30 a.m. • 11:00 a.m. • 12:45 p.m.

Seating in the brand-new, 1,200-seat hall is convenient and audience-friendly.

Student tickets are $5 ($2 for those who qualify) and free for teachers and adult chaperones.
Deadline: Order forms and checks must reach Kidder Music by March 23, 2010

Buses will drop off and pick up at locations requiring no street-crossings.

Adults whose children are attending but are not serving as chaperones may purchase tickets for $10, based on availability. Parking for cars and vans is free.

Teachers planning to take students will be able to download model lesson plans, instructional material, and games, and order free CDs and DVDs on-line.

What's NOT new for 2010?

Brilliant playing of accessible symphonic music that's FUN.

A program to capture the heart of any young person.

Symphony Guild volunteers ready to visit your school with a presentation before the concert if you request it.

Five Points, 360 N. Wilmor Road, Washington, IL 61571 is located 12 miles northeast of downtown Peoria.*
