Hiram Toraason discovered glass at Southern Illinois University. After finishing his Bachelors Degree in 2000, he continued his glass studies at a number of studios in Asheville, NC.

In 2003, Hiram moved to Peoria and founded Toraason Glass. It is a 4,000 square foot glass blowing studio and gallery. The gallery offers a variety of finished glass pieces for show and for sale, from functional to one of a kind creations.
